

JAMES LAWRENCE COPPAGE

(aka Jim the computer guy)

Jim passed away on March 5, 2018, at 6:55pm at The Journey Home Hospice with his wife and son at his side. He was born August 1, 1955 in Burlington, Iowa. He moved to California in his late teens where he began a career in oil refineries as an Analyzer and Instrument Technician. He moved to Bartlesville, Oklahoma in 1994. He met the love of his life, Linda. They were married on Aug 3, 1996 and together they opened "Computer Central" in 1998 where he worked until retiring in March 2015. He will be most known for his sense of humor. A moment spent with Jim was always spent laughing.

He is survived by his wife, Linda (Stieben) Coppage; his mother, Joyce Coppage; 3 sons, Jim, Ben and Michael Coppage; 1 daughter, Allison Coppage; 1 stepson, Eric King; 1 stepdaughter, Marie Scalese. Jim is also survived by 7 grandsons, Mason, Kenny, Ben Jr, Izaac, Jayven, Camden and Antonio; 2 granddaughters, Ali and Bella; 2 brothers, Steve and Mark Coppage; 3 sisters, Linda Kotschwar, Sharon Phillippi, Patricia Coppage as well as numerous nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by 1 brother, Jeff Coppage.